

Heidelberg, Taurien, Catholic Parish Marriages, Years 1841-1845

Russian State Archives of Saratov

Fond 1166, Opus 1, Delo 134, 160, 176, 198, 216.

One hundred and forty-six marriages were recorded in the Heidelberg Catholic Parish in the years 1841 to 1845. . These records were purchased in 2019 from the Saratov Archives by the Facebook group Planer Kolonien bei Mariupol.

These marriage records were written in the Russian Cyrillic script. Many surnames and Russian words were difficult to read. Marina Vollmer of Germany and I jointly read the records and created the index of marriages which follows. Marina's assistance with the Russian script was invaluable.

The German colony of Heidelberg was located about 80 km south and a bit east of Zaporizhia in today's Ukraine. During Russian times, Heidelberg was named Shurawlewo, but it now goes by the Ukrainian name of Novohorivka.

The Catholic Parish of Heidelberg included the colonies of Blumental, Hochheim, Kostheim (until 1869, Leitershausen (until 1869), and Waldorf.

For locations of these colonies, see map below.
