

Seventh-Day Adventist Church records

Going through LDS Microfilm 2063577, I came across a small collection of birth records for Seventh-Day Adventists from Bessarabia, but living in Crimea -- timeframe 1914-1920. These births/baptisms were recorded in the Eupatoria Armenian Catholic Church. Surnames: Hirsch, Ruff, Brodel, Milbrad, These records are online. The link to the records is here:

Attached are the records I extracted from this microfilm. I cannot tell if the date given represents the date of birth, or the date of baptism. Tschagoltai or Chagoltay is the most often cited location. Today it is called Daleke, Crimea. Find it on Google Maps. See below. The fact that so many of these families lived there, I am inclined to think this was a khutor or estate which these families owned. I would also guess the families are interrelated and the surnames of the wives would reflect the other surnames given.

I hope this helpful to someone. I have never encountered records for the Seventh-Day Adventist faith before.
