

Wörner/Werner Family Tree

A pang of envy can slowly rise when one is researching documents and suddenly comes across many pages of information documented on a family of no consequence to one's own search. How fortunate some Werners are to have had someone do much of their documenting and having it survive in a folder of World War 2 documents captured and microfilmed. While indexing DAI Microfilm #598, I came across many pages of Werner family information dealing with church and civil records for the period from 1634 to 1799 of the German towns of Ludwigsburg & Schorndorf (north of Stuttgart) and Giengen on the Brenz River (northeast of Ulm). The information transcribed below deals only with two microfilm frames containing a hand drawn family tree chart of the Woerner/Werner family. If this is your family line, be sure to view the other almost 100 pages for more family information.
